All wines were crafted by Winemaker Aaron Walker, son of PUC member Pam Harris, under the labels Pali Wine Company and Tower 15 Winery. Included is a gift certificate for wine tasting for up to 4 people at any of the Pali Wine Company tasting room locations throughout Southern California and Santa Barbara. Locations to choose from include: San Diego (Little Italy), Anaheim (Packing District), Santa Barbara (the Funk Zone) or Lompoc (Wine Ghetto). Tasting Flight for 4 people, with small appetizer platter included. No appointment necessary, no expiration date.

Wines:

Tower 15 Winery – Sauvignon Blanc Reserve – grapes grown at a small, 3 acre vineyard in Lake County (North of Napa Valley). Fermented in stainless steel, aged in neutral oak barrels.

Pali Wine Company "Highlands" Chardonnay – grapes grown in Santa Barbara County's Sta Rita Hills. Fermented and aged using minimal amounts of new oak – this chardonnay is not made in a big, buttery, oaky style. It is more about the bright acid and lively minerality that comes from this cool-climate growing region

Pali Wine Company Pinot Noirs – 2 different single-vineyard Pinot Noirs from the Sta Rita Hills. Both wines are produced in very limited quantities (less than 300 cases of each). Created from high-end vineyards, aged in 50% new French Oak and only available direct from the winery.

222#: Germany Reunites: A First Hand Account

Date: Sunday, June 25 at 1:00

15 winners

Starting bid: $20

Get an insider's perspective on one of the most transformative periods in recent history, one that continues to reverberate in today's world. Your host Sören Giess screens Goodbye Lenin!, a tragicomedy about the fall of the Berlin Wall and subsequent reunification of East and West Germany. Soren will share his first hand account of events while you enjoy a selection of typical snacks and libations Germans would have at a get-together like this.

Sören was born in Leipzig, the city probably most famous for being home to J.S. Bach, but also considered the birthplace of 1989's "Peaceful Revolution." Growing up in East Germany in the 70s and 80s, he went to school in East Berlin, when the unthinkable happened on a cold, clear night in 1989. Sören crossed the border that same night and for a few hours experienced the surreal excitement of this historic date, burned into the memory of millions: The 9Pull up a chair in the PUC library and settle in for an amazing afternoon.

th of November 1989. With only a few weeks left until his 17th birthday, he was as surprised about this turn of events as everyone else - and as clueless about what was to come...
